Atea Lodge

Set 122 metres above sea level on the side of the Tokatea mountain range, this stunning Lodge sits amongst 2.4 hectares of lush native bush. Spectacular views out to Waiheke Island, Te Kouma harbour and beyond, from your room and the covered deck, create an ambience of serenity and ever changing vistas.
Only five minutes drive from the quaint historical town of Coromandel, Atea Lodge provides boutique accomodation for the discerning traveller.
Wander down to the unique wooden beamed Guest Lounge to enjoy a book or play on the full sized billiard table. Relax on a seat in the bush lined garden overlooking the large pond and watch the Fantails and Tui's play - or treat yourself to a soak in our outdoor bath.
Automatic closing gates ensure your security and peace of mind - closing the world out for you to relax and enjoy your time with us.
Ample parking is provided.
The panoramic clear views and open spaces embrace the name Atea. On a clear night the stars are incredible for star gazing and astrophotography.
A superb gourmet breakfast including espresso coffee is included from our menu, served in the dining room or on the deck.
We are close to Coromandel town attractions including Driving Creek Railway and Zipline, Waterworks and many hiking trails. Enjoy art and craft shops and cafes in the township.
Coromandel Coastal Walkway, New Chums beach, Cathedral Cove and Hot Water beach are all within driving distance, taking you through beautiful scenery on the way.
