

Pentire Bed and Breakfast

We invite you to join with us in our family home on the edge of a reserve, and with views across the Pipiroa inlet and beach.

Your bedroom is situated on the ground floor with its own entrance, deck and BBQ. En-suite of generous size, Toaster, kettle, fridge. free WIFI, TV with Netflix and internet capability, video. Settee and dining table. Air conditioning. Very private.

At high tide fish can be seen jumping and terns diving. At low tide, herons and other wading birds. In the distance, a few mangrove trees nestle beside a stream, beyond that a small woodland largely undisturbed. So as dusk falls, the calls of native birds can clearly be heard.

In Russell, A plethora of cafes, gift shops, restaurants, museums and galleries. Just across the water, Pahia can be reached by ferry. Likewise the pleasure boats that give access to the bay and the islands, also the thrills and spills of game fishing and paragliding, diving and all other water activities.

For those wishing to venture further afield, Kerikeri is about 40 mins drive away across the Waikare inlet by car ferry. Kerikeri is a growing town. Here you will find large supermarkets, butchers, banks. Also the historical sites of Rewa's Village and the Stone Store. From Okiato the whole of Northland can be easily reached. Cape Reinga and Waipoua Forest famous for Tane Mahuta estimated to be 2,000 years old. Closer to the property, local walks and two beaches within a 5 minute stroll. Breathtaking views, peaceful setting.
