

Tarltons Lodge

Tarltons Lodge Bed & Breakfast is situated on a hill immediately south of the beaches, restaurants and town of Paihia, and commands a 170-degree panoramic ocean and island view. The Lodge is only a ten-minute walk to central Paihia, providing quick access to all local amenities, yet assuring an escape from any hustle and bustle. At the Lodge, there is a complete absence of any traffic noise, where a tranquil silence pervades, interrupted only by bird song. Each of our three guest rooms, have their own exclusive hot tub and breakfast table on a private terrace, opening onto this magnificent ocean view, which on arrival, literally takes your breath away.

The ocean view from Tarltons Lodge is unrivalled, and is visible through floor-to-ceiling sliding glass windows, from inside your room, and from the hot tub and the breakfast table on your terrace. We are the only luxury accommodation in Paihia, of which all rooms can boast a combination of an indisputably spectacular ocean view and a private hot tub.

Each morning we provide a generous and delicious breakfast on your terrace. The opulent furnishings in all three guest rooms display an elegant intimacy, with king and super king size beds and the best quality linen. Tarlton's Lodge offers you the ultimate haven to relax and re-energize. Our services are meticulous and invariably exceed the guest's expectations as our TripAdvisor, Booking.com and Expedia reviews testify.

Contact Information:

Phone: 09 402 6711

Address: 11 Sullivans Road, Paihia

Contact: Peter Kinseyu

Location: Paihia, Northland, New Zealand

Directions: After turning onto Sullivans Road, at the top of the hill, look for our Tarltons Lodge sign on the right hand side of the road directing you up a narrow lane (not identified on GPS Navigators). Proceed up the lane to the top of the hill.

GPS: -35.28936776531962, 174.09804829462132

