

A PANORAMIC COUNTRY HOMESTAY

As the heartland of New Zealand, the spiritual home to the Maori culture, Rotorua is a great place to immerse yourself to get a feel for it. From sampling indigenous food and watching master carvers, to guided tours of historic villages and participating in traditional song and dance

Your hosts, Chris & Dave, are happy to talk to you about the incredible attractions and activities of Rotorua and how you can enjoy your stay with them. They have a wealth of knowledge about this area and can advise on great attractions and activities that you may want to see.

Provided with the ideal platform to experience this area A Panoramic Country Homestay offers the perfect setting with unbeatable views.

Situated on four acres of farmland, this architect-designed brick and cedar home is a peaceful country retreat. All rooms, with private ensuite/bathrooms, are fully furnished, good quality and comes with a scrumptious complimentary continental breakfast, which includes fruit juice, cereals, yoghurt, fresh fruit, toast, homemade jams and pastries, followed by filtered coffee and tea. Cooked breakfast is available on request

The more energetic can play tennis on the championship-sized court, with rackets and balls supplied. If a more peaceful and quiet time is what you prefer, relax in the heated outdoor massage spa pool or private guest lounge. Listen to birdsong in the landscaped garden. Pat and feed the friendly sheep and working dog. Trout fishing available.
