

Lady of Lawrence

Eloquently situated amongst the rolling hills of Otago and at the gateway to the Clutha Gold Trail, Lady of Lawrence is one hour from Dunedin, two hours from Queenstown, and an eternity away from it all. Perfect for a romantic break, relaxing after the cycle trail, small groups, the discerning traveler and all equestrian enthusiasts.

The fifty plus horse prints, sculptures and soft furnishings might just make this the only equestrian art B&B in the world. There are also many other subjects for fine art through out the home. For more photos see the horse collection album on our face book page.

A destination in itself or a passing-through retreat, Lady of Lawrence has a maximum of five guests with two luxury rooms and private adjoining lounges. One additional double bed room, the Blue Room, is available downstairs which can be booked for a single. A party of five can be catered for with this extra room. The guests have exclusive use of the formal lounge and dining room, where breakfast is served, beverages are available, and cookies and chocolates are on offer each evening.

Cafes and shops are a simple stroll away. Special rates can apply for a second night & longer stays. We are committed to providing total care and privacy, so please don't hesitate to call if we can be of any assistance. Lady of Lawrence -both house and hostess- look forward to welcoming you here.
