

The Workshops Clyde Accommodation

The Workshops offers four individually styled rooms, all furnished for comfort and each reflecting the unique history of the building. With private bathrooms, continental breakfast provided a fully equipped kitchen, lounge and games room. All rooms are centrally heated making it a warm and comfortable stay no matter the season and a warm and cosy fire in the lounge. A outstanding feature of this property is being able to sit over the glass dining table looking into the old truck pit. There is also a outdoor dining area and barbecue available for guest use. Located in the historic township of Clyde and easy walking distance to all restaurants, cafes and shops. Only one hour away from Queenstown International Airport and a hour away from Wanaka
